GO / NO GO

A GAME OF BOUNDARIES

RULES

GO / NO GO is a conversation game designed to highlight different boundaries, how and where we differ on boundaries and how important context is when communicating.

The point of the game is to give a team more insight into each other and facilitate more open conversations about communication, cultural differences and lived experiences.

- You play the game by gathering a group of people (4-8) and point out two places on the ground, with 4-8m between.
- One end of the line is called "GO" and the other is called "NO GO".
- Then a statement is read out - one at a time - and the participants place themselves somewhere between the two "GO" and "NO GO" points, according to if they think the statement is appropriate (GO) or not appropriate (NO GO)
By placing themselves along the line between the two points, everybody is showing everyone else if they experience the statement as completely okay, crossing the line or somewhere in between.
- When everyone has positioned themselves, a joint discussion is held about why people stand where they stand. In this way, we open a joint conversation about the statement and trying to put ourselves into the experiences of others.

Nice shirt! It's a little bit see through

It makes me so happy
when you smile at me

You shouldn't be so easily offended

Why did you even volunteer?

Such a nice dress you're wearing. It suits you!

I'll take good care of you

I've been working here for 15 years, so I know what's right

Don't think,
just do as you are told

Calm down,
it was a joke!

Everyone's so offended all the time. We're not allowed to do anything anymore!

If you don't do what I say, then I'll kiss you!

You're allowed to have standards for the volunteer's work

Can you stay a bit longer?

We kinda have to finish before we leave.

I would have probably done that differently...

Com on, you can handle
one more beer!?

I'm sorry you feel that way

Do you need help?

Come along all of my minions, let's get to work

It was created by the young design-girls

Are there any strong guys that can help?

I don't care what you were told,
I'm the one in charge here.

You worry too much.

Calm down!

Do you want me to carry those for you?

Where are you from?

Are you mad or do you just have resting bitch face?

What's your problem?

Your friend is really hot

You look like you're lost?

Smile!

I'm hearing what you're saying but...

Can I touch your hair?

You're cute when you're mad

The background is a photograph of a large festival crowd at night. Two large stage structures with bright lights are visible, and a large flag is being hoisted in the center. The scene is illuminated by warm, golden light from the stage lights.
