

Severe Weather Planning Guidance for HSE Services

September 2025

- Though not explicitly made for festivals, we really like this guidance and think, you can easily adapt it as best practice for your event:
- You'll find it here

HSE National Emergency Management
Office (2025): Severe Weather Planning
Guidance for HSE Services

Planning and Preparedness Phase
No	Question	Ans.	Additional com...
Estates and maintenance
23.	Have you developed contingencies with Estates and Maintenance to ensure that your facilities can be used during Severe Weather? (Section 1.7.6)
24.	Has maintenance been carried out to limit damage to HSE facilities caused by Severe Weather in order to reduce Public Liability claims and comply with Health and Safety requirements? (Section 1.7.6)
25.	Do you have a list of Eircodes for your current facilities? (Section 1.7.7 & Section 4)
Utilities
26.	Have you access to a list of relevant meter point reference numbers for electricity (MPRN), Water (WPRN) & Gas (GPRN)? (Section 1.7.2 – 1.7.5)
Regional Crisis Management Team (RCMT)
27.	Does your Directory of Contacts include your service's nominated RCMT member so that you can contact them should you require the support of other HSE services?"
28.	Are you familiar with the process of engaging with RCMT? (2.2 & 2.5) Are you familiar with who is your service representative on the RCMT? (Section 2)
29.	Do you know who your designated Transport Liaison Officer is for your service?
30.	Do you know who the Regional Executive Officer (Chair of RCMT) has identified/designated to fulfill the role of Transport Coordinator for all HSE Services in the RHA geographical area? (Section 2)
31.	Have you included the contact details for your local HSE Emergency Management Office in your Directory of Contacts? (Section 1.6.1 Appendix H)
Services
32.	Have you identified a manager to act as a Liaison Officer for your area/service in respect of transport requests to liaise with the Area Transport - Coordinator? (Section 2.2)
Your additional service specific considerations
33.	Additional Service Specific Considerations
34.	Additional Service Specific Considerations
Energy Disruption - Planning & Preparedness			